Levels

These definitions are not to be used as a basis for referral or assessment, but only in providing general information about programs.

Basic Literacy: For learners with very limited reading and /or writing skills in their own language. Speak limited English, if at all.

Beginner: For learners with limited vocabulary and speaking ability. Understand a limited amount of English, usually with the help of gestures. Able to recognize high frequency words and/or able to read individual short simple sentences. Able to copy letters and numbers accurately. May also be able to provide basic personal information about oneself in writing. Intermediate: Learners can usually function within a known framework. Can comprehend instructions, questions spoken at a normal pace and complete simple writing tasks, although not always accurately. Can comprehend short passages on familiar topics.

Advanced: Learners are able to produce and comprehend longer stretches of "connected discourse" (speech or text), with reasonable fluency and in a wider range of contexts, including more abstract topics. They show the ability to initiate, sustain and control the direction of conversation, and to clarify, paraphrase and effectively self-correct when needed.

Levels are also labelled in different manners for different institutions; some using numbers, while others letters. Generally the lower numbers and letters signify lower levels of difficulty, while higher numbers and letters signify more advanced programs. Interpretations of the various levels may vary from one organization to another. Levels are currently being standardized with Canadian Language Benchmarks throughout the province.

Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada.

One-to-One Program

The level of study is set in accordance to the level of the student.

Short Syllabus

Reading Descriptors

Benchmark 1

Functions minimally in understanding written text. Shows little sight word recognition except for a small number of familiar words and simple learned phrases in predictable contexts, related to immediate needs.

Benchmark 2

Sight recognition is limited to familiar words related to everyday needs in predictable contexts. Can find specific information, mostly in simple formatted text with clear layout.

Benchmark 3

Able to read a simple passage within a familiar, predictable context of daily personal life: simple narrative of routine events (e.g., stories written and read in class); simple descriptive prose about people, places and things; set of instructions.

Benchmark 4

Able to read a simple 2-3 paragraph passage within a mostly familiar, mostly predictable context of daily life and experience: simple narrative, bibliographical or descriptive prose, set of instructions.

Benchmark 5

Able to read and understand purpose and general idea in some authentic 2-3 paragraph texts within a mostly familiar, mostly predictable context of daily life and experience. Language is mostly concrete, factual and literal. Some vocabulary items on abstract ideas.

Benchmark 6

Able to read one page of authentic text, mostly of factual nature. Vocabulary items relate to abstract ideas. Context is familiar, mostly predictable, practical and relevant to daily life and experience.

Benchmark 7

Able to read an authentic text of mostly factual, concrete nature with some abstract ideas within a familiar, predictable, mostly practical and relevant context of daily social, educational and work-related life-experience.

Benchmark 8

Able to read authentic texts, mostly of factual nature within an unfamiliar and only partially predictable context of daily social, educational and work-related life experience.

Writing Descriptors

Benchmark 1

Functions minimally in writing. Writes a small number of familiar words in predictable contexts, and copies letters, numbers and short phrases. Writing is characterized by inconsistency and frequent errors.

Benchmark 2

Developing some competence in writing. Produces a small number of familiar words and phrases in predictable contexts. Has occasional difficulty with simple structures and limited control of spelling and mechanics.

Benchmark 3

Demonstrates adequate competence in performing simple, familiar, personal writing tasks. Has satisfactory control of simple structures, spelling, and mechanics.

Benchmark 4

Is competent in performing basic, familiar writing tasks. Composes short messages and notes about personal experience and fills out simple forms. Has good control of simple structures, spelling, and mechanics.

Benchmark 5

Competently performs basic, familiar writing tasks, and shows minimal competence on more complex tasks of a business or social nature. Demonstrates ability to write short paragraphs. Has frequent difficulty with complex structures. Spelling and mechanical errors may interfere with comprehensibility.

Benchmark 6

Definitions of ESL streams

LINC (Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada)

A free federally-funded language training program for immigrants and refugees over 17 years of age who are non-Canadian citizens. In order to qualify, students must be assessed at English levels ranging from Pre-LINC to LINC 4. Priority is given to those who have been in Canada less than three years. Students are eligible for 40 weeks or a maximum of 1,250 hours of full-time language training and an unlimited amount of part-time language training hours or until the completion of LINC level 4. This program consists of language training, life skills and orientation to the community and Canadian culture.

* Students are assessed for general and linguistic eligibility and referred to LINC programs by the Language Assessment, Referral and Counselling Centre (LARCC), a service of Catholic Social Services.

General ESL

ESL classes which focus on all four aspects of language (reading, writing, listening and speaking) for basic to advanced level ESL students. These classes are primarily non-academic (with the exception of more advanced levels) and are fee-based.

Academic Bridging/Upgrading

Programs which assist/bridge ESL students toward post-secondary educational programs. They usually focus on developing specific skills and knowledge in one or more areas such as math, biology, English, literature, etc. Courses may be offered through classroom instruction, self-paced programming and computer assisted learning. Students are placed into courses according to their needs, career goals and results of assessment and/or placement tests.

Drop-In Centres

ESL programs for those students who are unable to attend regularly scheduled ESL classes. May offer morning, afternoon, or evening sessions to suit students' various time schedules. Some programs offer customized, one-to-one tutorial sessions. Times, frequency of attendance, and fees vary among programs.

English in the Workplace (EWP)

EWP is an ESL program offered on the work site. It usually focuses on specific English language skills and vocabulary related to the workplace. It is designed to help employees to improve their English and also their ability to function in an English speaking environment. The instruction is usually based on a contract between an ESL service provider and the employer.

Pre-Training / Employment Programs and ESL Programs for Trades and Professions

These programs are designed to assist immigrants and refugees to improve their job search, job maintenance and other skills necessary in order to participate in the Canadian Labour Market. The following components are usually included:

- career and educational planning
- job search techniques (application forms, cold calls, accessing the hidden job market, etc.)
- resume writing and cover letters
- interviewing skills
- the culture of the Canadian workplace
- life management skills
- the development of support network systems

Some programs offer skill training and/or work experience components as well as language instruction.

"ESL Programs for Trades and Professions" are programs offered only to those students who have an education and/or experience in a particular trade or profession. These programs consist of the above components as well as English training within a particular field.

Entrepreneurial Programs

The purpose of these programs is to help individuals reach financial independence through self employment by developing their own business. The program usually involves the following components:

- how to start a business and the steps involved
- the development and the principles of a business plan
- how to evaluate a business idea and seek business opportunities
- investment opportunities and financial planning
- the development of support network systems

Specific Language Skills

These are specialized classes focusing on one specific language skill or area. Classes are offered to beginner, intermediate and advanced level ESL students. Students may take courses in the following areas:

- conversation
- pronunciation
- reading
- writing
- grammar
- TOEFL preparation

Some classes may combine two skills such as reading and writing.

Literacy

Programs designed to assist "literacy learners" to become literate in English. Instruction may be done on a one-to-one basis and/or in a classroom setting. Some programs may offer first language instruction or assistance in order to develop and enhance English reading and writing.

Skills Development Program

Brief Description: This is a 48 week intensive ESL course, where listening, speaking, writing, reading and grammar skills are further developed in preparation for Job Market or Academic Training.

Students are tested for placement into Level 4, 5 or 6 depending on their abilities.

Job Market Training: Students receive extensive training in goal setting, resume writing and interview techniques. Also included is information about occupational health and safety, labour market research, job culture, employers' expectations, and a 5-week Canadian work experience component.

Academic Training: Students practice advanced listening and speaking skills and develop reading and writing strategies needed to bridge from ESL to upgrading and/or post-secondary studies

Career and Employment Counselling: A career/employment counsellor assists each student in creating their own action plan. This includes helping them set realistic vocational goals and provides one-to-one counselling and group facilitation in a variety of employment readiness programs including a thorough assessment process.
